

PUNCTURE Testing Device DE-70

This device is designed to perform resistance tests to the puncture of materials of flexible packaging and packaging, plastic films ..., coupled to a Universal Testing Machine

According to the Standard: UNE EN 14477

The device consists of:

- q 0.8 mm diameter punch head with rounded tip. The rounded tip of the puncture rod with 0.4 mm radius. (Other dimensions on request), with coupling to jaw carrier device.
- q Lower specimen holder, quick-locking fastening device to accommodate and hold circular samples to be tested.